- Message from Innovator Philip Richardson

So much of our success is steeped in our service excellence and flexibility to fit the needs of our Clients. In this edition, you'll see that we produce events on all the Hawaiian Islands, and offer our talents a la carte. We're not just a full-service innovation team. We're also creative team collaborators, as well as décor and catering directors.

- Current Affairs Basks Event in Zen-Like Glow

Charged with orchestrating a Zen-themed event at a beachfront Kauai restaurant for a medical convention, Current Affairs emptied the eatery of its wicker furniture - recasting the property's aura with simple, stylish, clean-line designs of Asia. Décor was accented with black and gold color tones, elegant floral arrangements and Japanese-style lanterns.

Current Affairs also provided insight and direction to the restaurant's staff to service the event as a catered group function rather than the usual, individual table service.

"It was as good as it gets in New York," exclaimed the Client. "We could not have expected more of the decor even if we had been in New York."

- Current Affairs Goes Wild On Maui!

When an international production company needed a local partner to execute a Safari-themed event, Current Affairs was the innovator of choice.

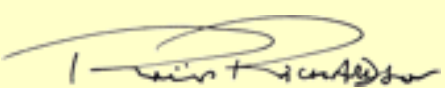

With safari tents and drapes in tow, Current Affairs Maui team collaborated with designer Todd Birns to capture the ambiance of an evening on the savannah.
